Dear New York City Ocean Miler,

The event that became a favorite for half a decade suddenly had to take a back seat to the safety of its family.

After five years of near perfect race-day weather, hurricane Gabrielle created conditions that threatened to put the lives of many in jeapordy.

While I'm upset that everyone (including those who came in from California) lost the opportunity to compete in this year's race, I can breathe a sigh of relief knowing that everyone left the race site in good health.

All of us at the Rockaway Beach Ocean Swimming Association thank you for your cooperation and for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Victor Aguirre Race Director,

Tomes
