Dear Swimmers, Spectators and Volunteers:

On behalf of the City of Indianapolis, I am thrilled to welcome you to our city for the 2024 U.S. Masters Swimming Spring Nationals. Indianapolis has a long history of hosting historic swimming events, including the 2018 U.S. Masters Spring Nationals. We are so glad to have you here during this epic time in our city!

Our city has a rich tradition of hosting sporting events of the highest caliber, including a number of NCAA championship events, Men's Final Fours, Women's Final Fours, and other NCAA Championships in swimming and diving, water polo, fencing, rowing, golf, and lacrosse. We have also hosted numerous Olympic events including the 2024 U.S. Olympic Team Trials – Swimming.

With the creation of the Indiana Sports Corp, Indianapolis became the first city to form a sports commission and create an economic development strategy around sports. For more than 40 years, Indiana Sports Corp has executed excellence in hosting more than 500 Olympic, national, international, and collegiate championships, the entire 2021 NCAA D1 Men's Basketball Championship, the College Football Playoff National Championship, and a Super Bowl, earning a reputation of unmatched success in staging world-class events. We have a demonstrated history of raising the bar for major events and look forward to working with the committee to enhance the player and fan experience, activate the entire downtown, and ensure a legacy for this event.

Visiting players, coaches, and fans will find a city full of world-class attractions upon arrival in Indy; including the Indianapolis Zoo and White River Gardens, the Indianapolis Museum of Art, and the 8-mile Cultural Trail winding through downtown that connects dining, shopping, cultural amenities, and entertainment options in all six of our eclectic cultural districts. With major tourism-related infrastructure currently being constructed and an award-winning airport, our city is truly the Crossroads of America, accessible to more than 50 percent of the country within a day's drive.

On behalf of our 82,900 hospitality professionals, we welcome you back to Indianapolis. Have a wonderful week.

Sincerely,

Joseph H. Hogsett
Mayor
City of Indianapolis
